It is understood and agreed that nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed or construed as creating a partnership or joint venture between the Client and the E-Plus or any other party, or cause either party to be responsible in any way for the debts and obligations of the other party.

14. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be deemed in default of this Agreement to the extent that any delay or failure in the performance of an obligation, other than the payment of money, results from any causes beyond its reasonable control and without its fault or negligence. For this purpose, such acts or events shall include, without limitation, storms, floods, unusually severe weather, acts of God, epidemics, pandemic, protest demonstrations, war, terrorism or terrorist acts, riot, strikes, lockouts or other industrial disturbances or unanticipated site conditions. In the event that such acts or events do occur, both Parties shall attempt to overcome all difficulties arising and to resume as soon as reasonably possible the normal pursuit and schedule of the Services set forth in this Agreement.

15. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Act, Act No. 2 of 2020. The place of arbitration shall be Dar es Salaam and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English. Should either Party be dissatisfied with the outcome received for the arbitration, either party may approach a competent court with jurisdiction for the appropriate relief.

16. Indemnity

15.1. To the fullest extent permitted by law, E-Plus shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Client from and against all claims, lawsuits or assertions of liability, caused in whole or in part by any negligent or intentional act or omission of E-Plus or any of its employees or agents in the performance of its services under this Agreement or by any act or performance related to the Services.

15.2. E-Plus' duty to defend, indemnify and hold the Client harmless shall arise in connection with any claim, damage, loss or expense (including but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, and the cost of appellate proceedings) that is attributable to personal or bodily injury, sickness, disease, death, injury to, impairment or destruction of property including loss of use resulting therefrom, caused in whole or in part by any negligent or intentional act or omission of E-Plus, anyone directly or indirectly employed by E-Plus or anyone for whose acts E-Plus may be liable, or by any act or performance related to the Services, regardless of whether such claim, damage, loss or expense is caused in part by a party indemnified hereunder, including the Client.

15.3. E-Plus agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the Client harmless from and against any and all penalties and damages incurred by the Client as a result of E-Plus' failure to obtain any permit or license required under, or to comply with, any applicable laws, ordinances or regulations in the performance of its services under this Agreement.
